Features

In the growing and popular Hato neighborhood, this spacious detached home sits on a generous lot of no less than 1,360 m². The ideal place for anyone looking to live comfortably with space, privacy, and close proximity to the coast. To top it off, the vibrant center of Kralendijk is only a 5-minute drive away, while the Caribbean Sea is within walking distance! A path runs alongside the house that leads directly to the sea in just a short 3-minute walk. What a delight!

At the heart of the home is the living room with open kitchen, offering plenty of living space. The property features three bedrooms and two bathrooms, making it perfect for a family or as an investment for long-term rental. The large covered front porch is ideally positioned to enjoy Bonaire's refreshing breeze. An inviting spot for social gatherings or simply to relax and unwind in peace.

The home also includes a carport of approximately 44 m² and ample space around the property to create a tropical garden, add a swimming pool, or expand the house with a fourth bedroom (subject to permit). Contact us today for more information!
